PARISH NOTICES

Sale of goods from anti-trafficking sewing centre, Kawthaung, Myanmar

The Sisters of Our Lady of the Missions established the Anti-Trafficking Sewing Centre at Kawthaung, Myanmar with the support of St Bede's Parish in 2010.

The sewing project offers a six month basic sewing course and when the young women have graduated they are employed locally, establish their own sewing business or return to the workroom where they are paid a salary for the goods they make. The income they earn supports their families and prevents them from becoming victims of human trafficking.

At all Masses over this weekend there will be a sale of these goods made by the women in Myanmar.

Myanmar continues to experience many challenges, particularly with the military coup, however the sewing workroom is also a safe work environment for these young women and contributes to their sustainability. All funds from the sale of these goods go directly to the women.

We pray for the people of Myanmar at this difficult time.
